21. Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) at NYU-Poly

A 2011 BHSEC alum invites BHSEC students & parents to the "Dia de Ciencias" sponsored by the student chapter of Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE) at NYU-Poly on Saturday October 13th from 10:30-2:30pm. Activities include informational workshops on the general college application process, statistics and opportunities available for Hispanic Students and interactive workshops where students get to learn about engineering hands on! RSVP here: www.docs.google.com/spreadsheet/SHPE

22. Babysitter:

The mother of a 3rd grader at NEST+M, needs someone to pick up her daughter, Polina, from school (3:00-3:05pm) on Mondays and Thursdays. She needs to be dropped off on Thursdays in Flushing (last stop on 7th train) and on Mondays at NYU Medical Center (33rd street and First Ave). Thursdays are most important, so it would be ideal if the babysitter lives in Queens preferably in Flushing /Woodside/Roosevelt. Two different students could share the job as well (one for Manhattan and another one for Flushing). Polina is fluent in Russian and studies mandarin. If interested, please email Lisa lgoldenberg@bhsec.bard.edu or stop by Room 209.
